

LETTER: Bird conservation a concern

Please, can I draw your attention to a community-spirited company called Skin and Body Renewal. Once a year, they do charitable work to benefit the North Eastern Tribune community.

On 20 September, I was walking my dogs in James and Ethel Gray Park. I found the above-named company had rallied a large number of volunteers and they were hard at work cleaning up the rubbish and litter which has accumulated at an alarming rate over recent months.

To read the full article: Bird conservation a concern